Thirty-third Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Thirty-third Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress approved July 22, 1861, and under instructions and authority received by the Governor, dated War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 30, 1861. The organization was to be effected under the requirements of General Orders No. 191 (current series), War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 25, 1863, and in conformity with General Orders No. 119 (current series), War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., April 29, 1863. The Regiment was commenced and completed under the provisions of General Orders No. 4, dated Office of Adjutant General, Trenton, N. J., July 11, 1863. The headquarters of the Regiment was established at Newark, N. J., at which place it was mustered into the service of the United States by companies, for three years or during the war. Company A, August 11; Company B, August 17; Company C, August 29; Company D, September 4; Company E, August 29; Company F, August 17; Company G, August 29; Company H, September 4; Company I, August 29; Company K, August 29, and Field and Staff, September 5, 1863, by JOSEPH P. ASH, First Lieutenant Fifth Cavalry, United States Army. It left the State September 8, 1863, en route to Washington, having a full complement of men. Officers, 39; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 902. Total, 941. Soon after arriving it crossed into Virginia and proceeded to Warrenton, at which place it went into Camp and immediately began to fit itself for active service. At this point it was assigned to the Eleventh Army Corps. It remained in this vicinity until the 25th of September, when in connection with the Corps to which it had been assigned, broke camp, having been detached by order of the War Department for service in the West. It then became a part of the Army of the Cumberland and entered upon an active career. It remained in this connection until the middle of November 1864, when it joined the Army of General Sherman on his march through Georgia and the Carolinas. At different times during the years 1864 and 1865 the strength of the Regiment was increased by the joining from Draft Rendezvous, Trenton, N. J., of a large number of Recruits, Substitutes and Drafted men. In compliance with General Orders No. 12, dated Headquarters Twentieth Army Corps, June 1, 1865, the enlisted men of the Thirtieth Regiment not entitled to discharge under existing orders joined the Regiment by transfer, and in compliance with Special Orders No. 45, dated Headquarters Ninth Army Corps, June 15, 1865, the enlisted men of the Thirty-ninth Regiment not entitled to discharge under existing orders joined the Regiment by transfer. The men so transferred were organized into and known as Unassigned Companies. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the close of the war, and those coming under the provisions of General Orders No. 77, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., April 28, 1865, were mustered out of service near Bladensburg, Md., June 1, 1865, by EDWARD H. WILDER, Major One Hundred and Second Regiment Infantry, New York Volunteers, Assistant Commissary of Musters, Second Division, Twentieth Army Corps. The remainder were mustered out of service by the same officer near Washington, D. C., July 17, 1865, in compliance with Special Orders No. 160, Headquarters Department of Washington, D. C., July 5, 1865.

The Regiment was first attached to the First Brigade, Second Division, Eleventh Army Corps, then to the Second Brigade, Second Division, Twentieth Army Corps, and at the close of the war was attached to what was known as the Provisional Corps, Army of the Potomac.

The Regiment took part in the following engagements: Chattanooga, Tenn., Nov. 23, '63; Mission Ridge, Tenn., Nov. 24 and 25, '63; Mill Creek Gap, near Dalton, Ga., May 8, '64; Roseton, Ga., May 15 and 16, '64; New Hope Church, near Dallas, Ga., May 25 to June 1, '64; Pine Knob, Ga., June 15 and 16, '64; Mudly Creek, Ga., June 17 and 18, '64; Calp's Farm, Ga., June 22, '64; Kanassa Mountain, Ga., June 27, '64; Porch Tree Creek, Ga., July 20, '64; Siege of Atlanta, Ga., July 22 to Sept. 2, '64; Siege of Savannah, Ga., Dec. 11 to 21, '64; Avery'sboro, N. C., March 16, '65; Bentonville, N. C., March 18 to 20, '65.

Thirty-sixth Regiment.

See Third Regiment Cavalry - Volunteers.

Thirty-seventh Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Thirty-seventh Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and in pursuance of a call made by the President of the United States for the immediate enrollment of volunteers on or before September 1, 1861. The State of New Jersey, to serve one hundred days, unless sooner discharged, and was called forth by the President of the United States, dated Trenton, May 16, 1861. The troops to be raised were to be organized as regiments, and to be mustered into the service of the United States by Regiments. Under the authority of the President, the Thirty-seventh Regiment was immediately commenced, to be known as the Thirty-seventh and Forty-eighth Regiments. The Headquarters of the Thirty-seventh Regiment was established at Trenton, the Thirty-eighth at Camp Frelinghuysen, near Newark. The expectation had been that the two Regiments would be realized, and it became necessary to consolidate the two, which was done. The Headquarters of the Forty-eighth Regiment, which was established at Camp Delaware, near Trenton, and the regiment designated the Thirty-seventh. It was then composed of two regiments, each consisting of nine Companies, was mustered into the service of the United States at Camp Delaware, and was discharged June 2, 1864, at Trenton, N. J., by FRANK WISTLER, Captain Twelfth Infantry, United States Army, for length of the command being: Officers, 35; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 715. Total, 750. It left the State June 28, 1864, on its last march. At Harrison, Md., the command embarked on transports, proceeded to City Point, Va., and remained there until the 24th of July. It was then assigned to the Provisional Brigade, Army of the James. The early service of the Regiment was varied, being assigned for provost, garrison, guard, picket and other duties, and so continued until the 28th of August when under orders it marched to the extreme front, following veteran troops, and was assigned to duty in the trenches and fortifications before Petersburg, Va. It remained in the performance of these duties until relieved, September 25, 1864, their term of service having expired. During the month of September, and part of October, the State for discharge a number of the enlisted men re-enlisted for one year, and were assigned to Companies in Battery F, First Regiment New Jersey Artillery. On the 26th of September the Regiment left the front en route to New Jersey for duty in the following month, and on its return having gained a reputation uncommon to troops of so short a period of service. The Regiment returned to the State General Order No. 1, commanding, as set forth in General Orders No. 34, Headquarters Tenth Army Corps, Army of the James, dated before Petersburg, Va., September 25, 1864. The Regiment was mustered out of service at Trenton, N. J., Oct. 1, 1864, by James W. Taylor, Captain Second Infantry, United States Army.

The Regiment was first attached to a Provisional Brigade, Army of the James, then to the Second Brigade Third Division, Tenth Army Corps.

The Regiment took an active part in the operations before Petersburg, Va., from August 28 to September 25, 1864.

Thirty-eighth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Thirty-eighth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and an Act of Congress, approved January 1864, as set forth in General Orders No. 221, dated War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., July 6, 1861, and in General Orders No. 111, dated War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., August 21, 1861. The Regiment was organized under the provisions of General Orders No. 111, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., April 29, 1863. Instructions were issued and recruiting for the Regiment immediately commenced. The Headquarters of the Regiment was established at Camp Bayard, Trenton, N. J., and active recruiting was not terminated until the organization at an early day. The required number of men to complete the Regiment was raised and mustered into the service of the United States, by companies, for one year, by the 1st day of October, 1861. Company A was mustered in September 22, 1861; Company B, September 9; Company C, September 10; Company D, September 21; Company E, October 1; Company F, September 22; Company G, September 27; Company H, September 30; Company I, September 12; Company K, September 15, and Field and Staff, October 1, 1861, at Camp Bayard, Trenton, N. J., by General B. E. RICH, First Lieutenant Third Infantry, United States Army. The Regiment was mustered into the United States by the 31 day of October, 1861, having a full complement of men. Officers, 38; Non-Commissioned Officers, 14; Privates, 441. It left the State in three detachments. Companies B, C, I and K left September 20, 1861, under the command of Captain W. DAVIS. Companies E, D and A, September 29, 1861, under the command of Major WILLIAM H. TANTUM; and Company F, October 1, 1861, under the command of Colonel WILLIAM J. SEWELL. Each detachment under orders proceeded to Fortress Mifflin, Pennsylvania, by transports to City Point, Va. Upon arrival it was assigned to garrison and other duties, the headquarters of the Regiment being at Fort F. Whelan on the James river, having been assigned to a Provisional Brigade, Army of the James. It remained in this duty during its entire period of service. In the early part of 1865 the strength of the Regiment was increased by the joining from Fort Monroe, Virginia, N. J., of a number of recruits. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the close of the war. It was mustered out of service at City Point, Va., June 30, 1865, by J. REMINGTON, Captain and Assistant Commissary of Muster Department of Virginia, by authority, as set forth in a telegram dated War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., May 29, 1865, and started immediately on its return to New Jersey where it arrived July 4, 1865.

The Regiment was attached to a Provisional Brigade, Army of the James.

The Regiment took part in the operations of the Army before Petersburg, Va., which resulted in its capture April 2, and the surrender of General Lee, April 9, 1865.

Battery C—First Regiment—Artillery—Volunteers.

This Battery was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress approved July 22, 1861, and under instructions and orders received by the Governor, dated War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 29, 1861. The organization of the Battery was to be effected under the requirements of General Orders No. 194, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 25, 1863, and in conformity with General Orders No. 110, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., April 29, 1861. It was fully completed, officered and equipped by the 11th day of September, 1861, at which time it was mustered into the service of the United States for three years or during the war, at Camp Perrine, Trenton, N. J., by WILLIAM F. POWELL, Captain and Commander of Subsequent United States Volunteers, the strength of the Battery being 100 men, 3 Non-Commissioned Officers, and Privates 141. Total, 144. Until the State September 25, 1863, en route to Washington, D. C., and after arrival at Washington it was transferred with the necessary outfit of baggage, horses and equipments, went into Camp and continued its participation in the service, having contributed to the General Forces of the Army by being in the Trenches, Defenses of Washington. It remained in this condition until the latter part of May, 1864, when, under orders, it proceeded to the front and joined the main Army. At different times during the year 1864, the strength of the Battery was increased by the coming from Draft Rendezvous, Trenton, N. J., of a large number of recruits as well as by transfer from Batteries A and E. The Battery continued its organization and remained in active service until the close of the war when it was mustered out at Trenton, N. J., June 19, 1865, by WILLIAM H. POWELL, Captain Fourth Infantry, United States Army, in compliance with General Orders No. 105, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 2, 1865.

The Battery was first attached to General Barry's Brigade, (Artillery,) Provisional Corps, Defences of Washington; then to General Abercrombie's Division, Provisional Corps, Department of Washington; then to an Artillery Brigade, Second Army Corps; then to an Artillery Brigade, Ninth Army Corps, then to an Artillery Brigade, Reserve Artillery, Army of the Potomac.

The Battery took part in the following engagements:

Deep Bottom, Va., July 27, '64 Roads Station, Va., Aug. 25, '64 Oct. 3 to 12, '64; Fort Haskell, Va., Nov. 27, '64 to March 29, '65	Weldon R.R., Va., June 20, '64 Cedar Bluffs, C.H., Va., June 22, '64 Salt Springs, Va., Sept. 30, '64 Brown's Pasture, Va., February, '65 Forts Haskell and Saxton, Va., April 1 and 2, '65

Maryland Emergency.

In the early part of July, 1861, the cities of Washington, D. C., and Baltimore, Md., were endangered by a threatened invasion of the enemy. A battle had been fought within a few miles of Baltimore and communication with Washington had been interrupted. In view of this emergency the Government of this State issued a proclamation dated January, July 12, 1861, calling for the organization of the militia for thirty days' service in Pennsylvania, Maryland or the District of Columbia. Upon receipt of this company reported for duty, was accepted and mustered in at Camden, N. J., July 14, 1861, for thirty days. It left the State July 15, 1861, for Baltimore, Md., and on arrival reported to Major-General Lew Wallace commanding Middle Department. It was stationed at the White House below Baltimore and was attached to the First Separate Brigade English Army Corps. Upon expiration of term of service it returned to New Jersey and was mustered out at Camden, August 15, 1861.

Company A, First New Jersey Militia.

United States Colored Troops.

The first provision of a Proclamation by the President of the United States, dated Washington, D. C., January 1, 1863, the enrollment of colored men in the Army and Navy of the United States was authorized. Under the authority thus given, as set forth in General Orders No. 1, War Department Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., January 2, 1863, Regimental Organizations were begun and completed in several of the States. This State, however, never organized any regiments of Colored Troops, but all recruits were forwarded to the War Department, to be placed under the direction of the Secretary of War, dated War Department, Washington, D. C., September 19, 1863. Mustering Orders were received to muster into Regiments of United States Colored Troops, all colored volunteers from the State of New Jersey, and to be presented. The recruits for these organizations were to be placed to the credit of this State, upon the certificate of the Adjutant General of the State. These instructions were subsequently modified by authorizing the Superintendent of Recruiting Service of this State to enroll and muster in these regiments in the State. They were enrolled and mustered in by the Provost Marshals of Districts in New Jersey, and forwarded to Fort Monroe, Va., and from thence were transferred to specified depots, and were then assigned to the various Regiments in the service. The Officers received their appointments and were commissioned direct from the War Department, and were assigned to commands in that Department.

The following list shows such appointments and enlistments in this branch of the service, as were credited to this State. They remained in the service until after the close of the war, and were mustered out at different times and places as the War Department directed.

Andersonville Cemetery, Georgia.

This Cemetery is located about half a mile northwest of the Federal Prison at Andersonville, Ga., a station on the Northwestern Georgia Railroad, sixty miles from Macon, and near the line between Georgia and Florida. It was established for the reception and confinement of soldiers of the Union Army, who had been captured and were held as Prisoners of War.

The original number of internments in this Cemetery 12,912. It has since been the burial place of the dead Union and Confederate soldiers interred in the Public Cemetery at Montgomery, Ala., and of a considerable number of Prisoners of War who had been killed at Macon, Columbus, Thomasville and Albany, Ga., from the northern and Southern States, and the internment of the dead of the battle of Gettysburg, Pa., Savannah, south of the Georgia Central Railroad.

Corinth Cemetery, Mississippi.

This Cemetery is situated about three miles from the town of Memphis, Tennessee, near the junction of the Mississippi River and the Memphis and Charleston and the Mobile and Ohio Railroads. The land was purchased by the Government, from General Holly Springs Grant, who was killed at the battle of Shiloh, April 6, 1862, and is now owned by the United States Department of War. It contains the remains of many soldiers who died during the Civil War, and also of some civilians who were killed during the same period. The cemetery is one of the largest and most beautiful in the South, and is well maintained by the Government.

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

There is no National Cemetery in or near Philadelphia. Those who died in the General Hospital were buried in lots set apart for this purpose in the different local cemeteries in the city. Those who died in the General Hospital and were buried in the Woodland and Lebanon Cemeteries. These lots were afterward either burned or removed to the National Cemetery. Quite a number of those in Philadelphia have since its preparation been removed by friends, and are so noted.

Arlington Cemetery, Virginia.

This Cemetery is situated on Arlington Heights, on the Virginia side of the Potomac River, about 2 miles from Washington, D. C. The interments here are principally those who died in the numerous Hospitals in Washington and vicinity, and at Fort Detrick, Md., and the thresholds of Bull Run, Manassas and Chantilly, Va., and from various localities in Maryland and Virginia, within the military zone of Washington.
